

Rating Action: Moody's assigns Aaa to Delaware's general obligation bonds; outlook stable

05Apr2023

New York, April 05, 2023 -- Moody's Investors Service has assigned a Aaa rating to the State of Delaware's approximately $400 million General Obligation Bonds, Series 2023, consisting of approximately $365 million General Obligation Bonds, Series 2023A and approximately $34 million General Obligation Refunding Bonds, Series 2023B. Moody's maintains a Aaa rating on the state's previously issued general obligation debt, which approximates $2.2 billion. The outlook is stable.

RATINGS RATIONALE

The Aaa rating on the bonds is the same as Delaware's issuer rating because of the full faith and credit nature of the state's pledge on the bonds. Delaware's Aaa issuer rating is supported by its healthy and stable finances and its strong management and governance. The state's well-established process for monitoring revenue and its statutory limits on annual spending growth are important tools that aid financial management. These tools and the state's continued growth in reserves provide a cushion should unforeseen challenges arise. Also incorporated in the rating is Delaware's leverage, which is above average as a share of revenue.

RATING OUTLOOK

The stable outlook is supported by the state's strong reserves and structural governance features, which will help preserve a sound financial position relative to peers.

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO AN UPGRADE OF THE RATINGS

- Not applicable

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO A DOWNGRADE OF THE RATINGS

- Growth in spending that the state accommodates with nonrecurring resources or a material use of reserves
- A sustained and material slowdown in economic expansion that is a drag on revenue growth
- Growth in long-term liabilities that outpaces expansion of the state's economy

LEGAL SECURITY

The Series 2023 bonds, like outstanding general obligation bonds of Delaware, are a full faith and credit obligation of the state.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Proceeds of the Series 2023A bonds will fund capital projects throughout the state. Proceeds of the Series 2023B bonds will refinance the state's outstanding Series 2013A general obligation bonds for anticipated debt service cost savings.

PROFILE

Delaware is the sixth-smallest state in the US, based on its estimated population of just over 1 million. The state's gross domestic product, as of the third quarter of 2022, was about $88 billion.
